

(Download) Cadets in Gray: The Story of the Cadets of the South Carolina Military Academy and the Cadet Rangers in the Civil War

Cadets in Gray: The Story of the Cadets of the South Carolina Military Academy and the Cadet Rangers in the Civil War

Gary R. Baker

Download PDF | ePub | DOC | audiobook | ebooks*

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

#729110 in Books Palmetto Bookworks 1990-03-01Ingredients: Example IngredientsOriginal language:EnglishPDF # 1 9.25 x 6.00 x 1.00l, #File Name: 0962306509241 pages | File size: 30.Mb

Gary R. Baker : Cadets in Gray: The Story of the Cadets of the South Carolina Military Academy and the Cadet Rangers in the Civil War before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Cadets in Gray: The Story of the Cadets of the South Carolina Military Academy and the Cadet Rangers in the Civil War:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Excellent retelling of Citadel cadet involvement in the Civil War.By Clarice S.Excellent retelling of Citadel cadet involvement in the Civil War.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. It was a good read, giving information about The Citadel during the ...By Phil EasleyIt was a good read, giving information about The Citadel during the Civil War. I liked the parts of the book dealing with the firing on the Star of the West, and the Battle of Trevilian Station.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Battalion of State cadetsBy JESSE R WIGHTMANI purchased this book back in 1989 and had the author sign it. This is a thorough history of the Citadel and Arsenal cadets during the Civil War. I've always wondered why VMI touts that they are the only student corps that has been engaged in combat. No doubt, the Battle of New Market in 1864 was a great moment in the history of VMI. The Battalion of State cadets from the Citadel in Charleston and the Arsenal in Columbia were called to duty in DEC 1864 to combat Sherman's invasion of SC. The Battalion of State cadets and units from GA (5th and 44th) along with some SC artillery units set up defensive positions along the Tulifinny railroad trestle. About 5000 Union forces from OH and NY attacked the defensive positions from 7-9 DEC and were stopped. I believe the U.S. Marines attacked the defensive position manned by the Battalion of State cadets. Mr. Don Troiani or another well known Civil War artist should do a rendering of this key battle that allowed 10,000 Confederate troops to escape from Savannah, GA. The flag the Battalion of State cadets flew at the Battle of Tulifinny was given to them by the Washington Light Infantry of Charleston in FEB 1857. It is in the school's museum collection and there is a picture of the flag in the book by Gary Baker. Highly recommend this book for ACW historians.

Cadets in Gray tells the story of the Cadets of the South Carolina Military Academy (the predecessor of The Citadel) and the Cadet Rangers (Co. F, 6th South Carolina Cavalry) in the Civil War.

About the Author Gary R. Baker is a 1966 graduate of The Citadel. He is a former President of the South Carolina Civil War Roundtable.