A sequel to Koch's Award Winning Colonel Coggeshall : The Man Who Saved Lincoln. This book introduces the Coggeshall Ladies, the Colonel's wife Mary, daughters Jessie and Emancipation Proclamation (Prockie). Details of their lives and their courageous actions give an intimate look into the past.

"Another charming and absorbing account of 19th Century life...A tribute to three courageous women...an inspiration..." -- Thomas C. Mulligan, Lecturer, Otterbein College
"The proud tradition of the Coggeshall clan finds its true chronicler in Freda Koch." -- Jay Hoster, President, Columbus Historical Society
"Those wonderful Coggeshall Ladies! Their manners, training, experiences, lives. Despite danger, each was a lady in the truest sense of the word." -- Janet Fankhauser, Publisher's Consultant, Center Stage Magazine
About the Author
