This volume is the second of five covering the whole of the French Revolution, Napoleonic and 1812 Wars based on contemporary images, a series depicting the reality of warfare under sail in a depth never previously attained. Features a stunning collection of 300 contemporary images, many illustrations previously unpublished, and introductory essays and thematic text boxes by well-known authorities.

From the PublisherPublished in association with the National Maritime Museum.From the Inside FlapThis volume is devoted to the great wars of 1793-1815, and charts the naval events of 1798 to 1801, a period which saw Napoleon's frustration before Acre, and which included two of Nelson's greatest victories, at the Nile and Copenhagen.About the AuthorGeneral editor Robert Gardiner. Contributions by Roger Morriss, author "The Royal Dockyards in the Revolutionary and Napoleonic Wars" and a forthcoming biography of Admiral Sir George Cockburn, and David Lyon, author of "The Sailing Navy List" and "The First Destroyer".
