So personal, great read...0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. korea 1952-53By eugene leeOLD UGLY HILL If you want to read a book about the Korean War years of 1952-53, This Is It. Other than Col. Hackworth's book, About Face. All I've ever been able to find coverage about 52-53 are the peace talks going on. Being a Korean Vet, (Heartbreak Ridge) , during that period I , i'm sure, other Vets of 52-53 appreciate this book. Approximately 50% of KIA WIA occurred in 1952-53. SGT. Stephens did an excellent job covering the War going on across the front. RUDOLF W. STEVENS , Thanks for this book. (I'm sorry I didn't come across this book sooner than I did!!!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. ... grew up next the Stephens and I am so glad he told his storyBy CustomerI grew up next the Stephens and I am so glad he told his story. I could not put the book down and read it in one afternoon.

From his induction and boot camp to the terrible fighting to capture a Korean hill called Old Baldy, from his gut-wrenching work in the medic corps to the mind-numbing cold in the trenches, this is one G.I.'s story of the Korean War. It is not a story of heroes, but one of everyday soldiers fighting and surviving in some of the worst conditions imaginable.

"fusillades of all calibers create a cacophony of fury that could be spliced in with the combat scenes in Platoon...would strongly supplement large collections" -- Booklist/RBB
