Mija's new life in America is challenging compare to South Korean Asian culture with her new parents and a small son. Although she escaped South Korea, she meets a male student at University of Toledo who fought in Korean War in frozen land of North Korea. Through his story she recollects the flashback memories of Korean War, her family and friends. Later serendipitously, she finds her lost husband, Ichiro, through a friend, and she becomes involved in an agonizing triangle love affair. With surprising twist, this book is outstanding. I highly recommend this book; it is heart-rending, yet exceptionally inspirational. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Another great book!! By Roger I couldn't put this one down. I hope there's another!!! Thank You CHI SUN RHEE for taking your time talent to write this one.

Book 3 - The Devastation To Greatness is part of a four part series which encompasses the history of Korea from the 1940 invasion by Japan to the present. In the first volume, Mija, a Korean girl and Ichiro, a Japanese college student, accidentally fall in love. Although parents of both offspring order the two to avoid meeting, they disobey their parents and marry. Through this marriage, a variety of obstacles are created and we learn the intimate details of Korean culture, history, and manners. The conflict between Japan and Korea, symbolized in part by this unusual marriage, threatens to tear the fabric of such a union. Through the eyes of Ichiro, we learn much about South Korea, its strong work ethic, its ability to move onward against impossible odds. Author Bio: Chi Sun Rhee is a retired gynecologist/obstetrician. She is the mother of two sons and a daughter and is the author of several acclaimed novels.
