in hardback as part of the "United States Army in the Korean War" official history series. This softbound edition contains all the maps and extra material in the original and is a required purchase for those interested in the subject. Appleman is a very good writer and manages to create a very readable history.

An account of the first five months of the Korean War, describing the withdrawal to the Pusan perimeter, MacArthur's landing at Inch'on and drive northward that crushed the North Koreans, and the stiffening of enemy resistance as the United Nations forces neared the Manchurian border. With color maps, illustrations, bibliographical note, glossaries, index.
