Kathy Neill Herran : They Dared to Roar before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised They Dared to Roar:

This is a fascinating look into the lives of 9 women. They made a difference in the formation of the United States. Their efforts helped to illuminate the plight of slaves and build organizations to service the needs of our country. Their dedication helped to heal the wounds of a battered nation, and strive for greater educational and professional choices.

These ladies of the 1800's helped to change the world...
