I highly recommend. 5 stars!By JoeVandall have numerous books on Gettysburg and taught U.S. History for many years before retiring. I have visited Gettysburg so I can visualize all the places mentioned. This Time book rates as a 5 star book on the battle. It is as well done as I have ever seen. Well written and the side stories about the famous generals and people of the the three days is excellent. I recommend it highly. You won't be disappointed.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. I never thought I would buy magazines online.By Glenn A. MichaelsI love the feel of a good magazine while I am reading. At age 60, I am used to paper magazines. However, one-by-one, they are being replaced by digital magazines. I am also totally on Audible.com now as well. The additional features that this makes available and the searching ability and other digital features make this very handy and even more valuable than the paper version. I am a big Civil War historian and especially Joshua Chamberlain and the 20th Maine who were made famous at Little Round Top. Highly recommended historical read and photographs.3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. A very good read!!By david f cloggThis is one of the best civil war books that I have read. This includes the trilogies by Foote and Catton. The book was very well laid out and took the reader through the different battles without giving so much detail that the reader can not keep up. I am glad that I bought this book and I highly recommend it. I will visit Gettysburg now and take my book along with me. D. Clogg - Utica Ohio History was made on the first three days of July 1863 at Gettysburg, Pa., where Confederate General Robert E. Lee waged a final desperate gamble to win the Civil War-and lost. Now TIME celebrates the 150th anniversary of this pivotal battle in a freshly reported, incisively written and beautifully illustrated volume. TIME has enlisted a brilliant roster of writers to offer fresh perspectives on this iconic battle. Best-selling novelist Jeff Shaara will create a fictional portrait of a Southern soldier in the ranks, and military historian David Eisenhower will examine the strategy of the battle. Noted TIME weekly writers include Richard Lacayo on photography in the war, Jeff Kluger on medicine on the battlefield, David Von Drehle on Lincoln and his generals, and critic Richard Corliss on the war on film, while veteran TIME cartographer Jackson Dykman is creating all new maps for the book. This oversized hardcover edition will offer a magnificent canvas for classic war photographs and other images from the period.
